

Search:

First name: Richard E.

Last name: Taylor

Prize: Physics

Filters:

Location: Medicine Hat

Start Year: ▼

Finish Year: ▼

Category: ▼

About the winner:

Richard Edward Taylor, CCFRSFRSC (born November 2, 1929) is a Nobel Prize-winning professor emeritus at Stanford University. In 1990, he shared the Nobel Prize in Physics with Jerome Friedman and Henry Kendall "for their pioneering investigations concerning deep inelastic scattering of electrons on protons and bound neutrons, which have been of essential importance for the development of the quark model in particle physics."